1962 BREEZE ANNUAL

A black and white photograph of a large group of students, approximately 50-60 in total, posing for a group photo in front of the main entrance of Washington Gardner High School. The students are arranged in several rows, with some standing on the steps leading up to the entrance. They are dressed in mid-1960s attire, including sweaters, jackets, and skirts. The school building is a two-story structure made of light-colored stone or brick, featuring a large, arched entrance with a multi-paned glass door. Above the archway is a decorative stone frieze with Gothic-style tracery. Two tall, black lampposts with white globe lights stand on either side of the entrance steps. The overall scene is a formal group portrait of the school's student body.

Dedication

Ever since she began her teaching career in 1918, Miss Iva L. Fleming, one of the most experienced active high school instructors in this part of the state, has been a dedicated school teacher and a friend to hundreds of people. Known not only for her long teaching career but also for her founding and continued operating of the Albion Mission House, Miss Fleming holds a special place in the hearts of all who have made her acquaintance. Her congenial smile and pleasant ways make her one of the best loved members of the school faculty. It is with great pleasure and sincerity that the yearbook staff dedicates the 1962 "Breeze" to Miss Iva L. Fleming, one who has sacrificed much for others.

Pretty Barbara Emery Crowned 1961 Ho

'Twas a cold, rainy night that capped the Homecoming festivities, but it failed to dampen the thrills of Friday, October 13.

The celebration began with a pep assembly based on the Martin-McCoy feud and sponsored by the Varsity Club. After school the seniors sold red-and-white mums. For the first time in a number of years the sophomore, junior, and senior classes built floats depicting the power of the team (which unfortunately lost that night). The floats were on display near the bleachers.

Principal Harry Williams crowned Barbara Emery Queen during a pre-game ceremony. She was selected by the seniors from a field of eight beauties, including Edwina Niecko, Jennifer Snyder, Janet Seiler, Sue Ann McAuliffe, Joanne Dice, Catherine Cascarelli, and Martha Konkle. Following the game, pretty Queen Barb and her court reigned at the dance held in the star-spangled gymnasium.

We Bid You A Fond Farewell...

Albion was fortunate this year in having four pretty exchange students from overseas spending twelve months in this country.

On April 3, the quartet, bedecked in costumes from their native lands, presented an assembly for the senior high school so that all might become better acquainted with them.

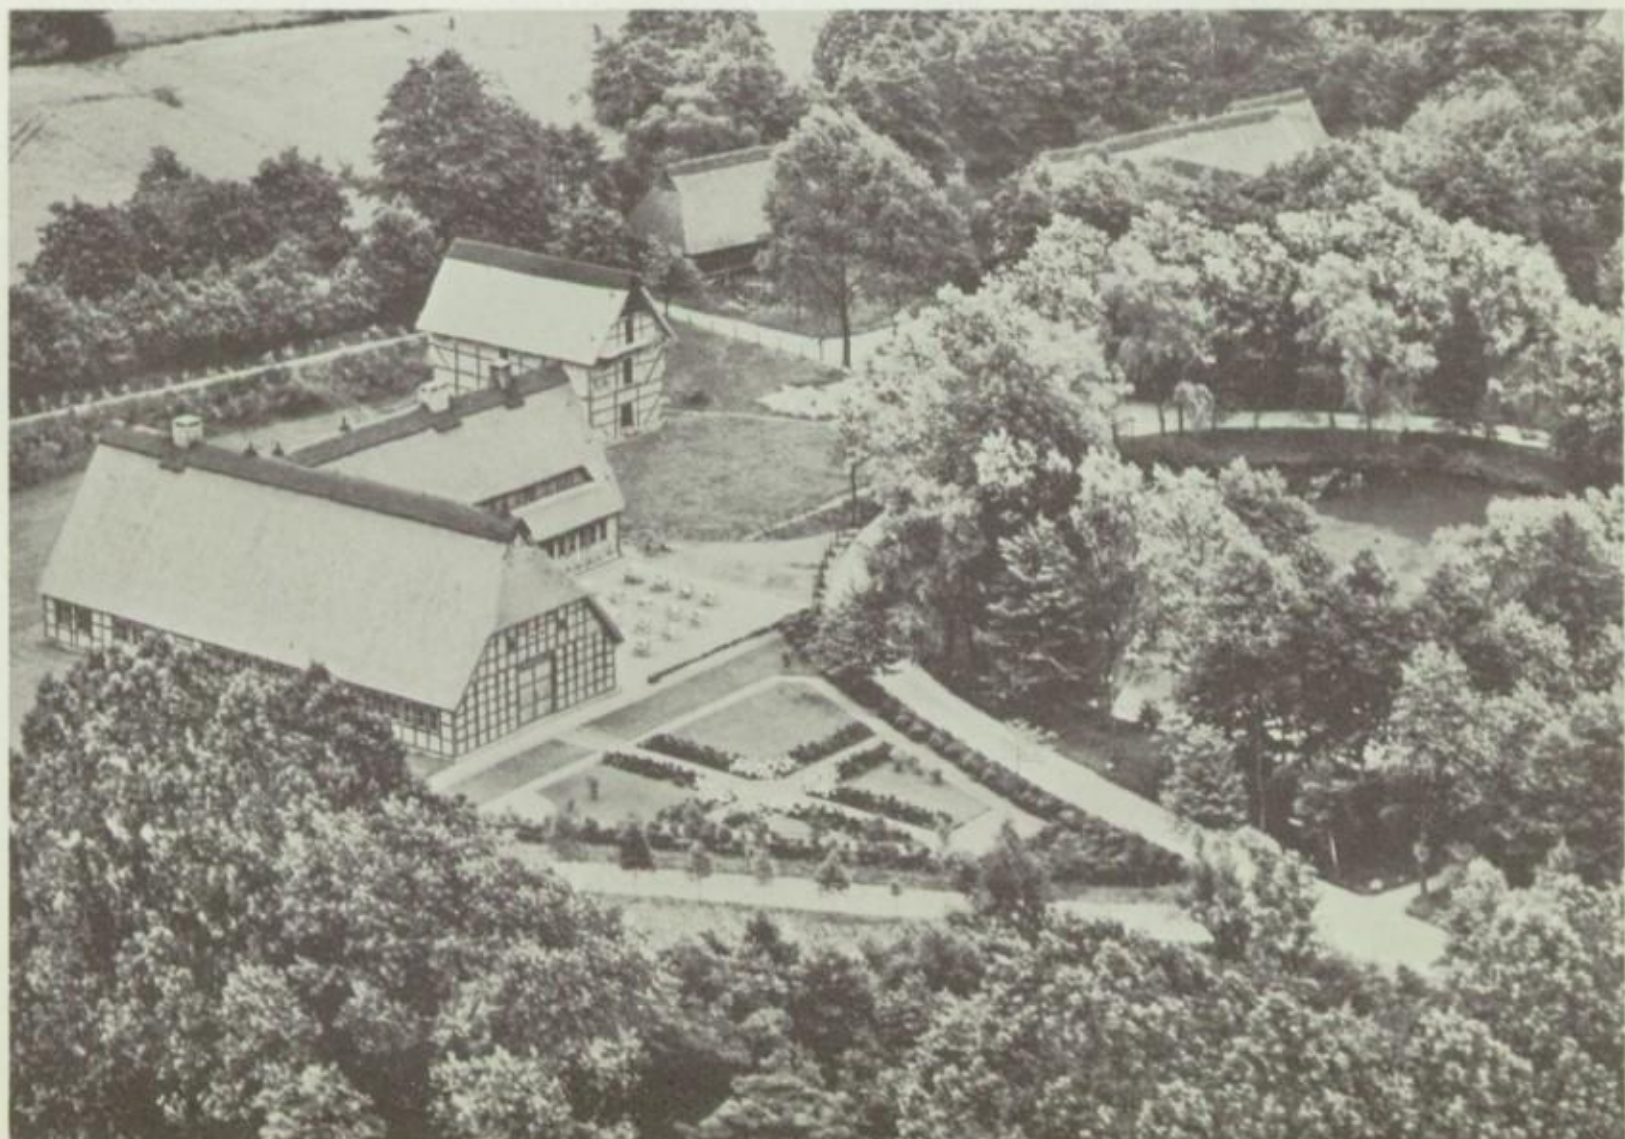

Visiting in Albion this year were Eva Svenmar of Sweden who lived with Mr. and Mrs. Robert Geyer, Finland's Ulla Sjolund who resided with Atty. and Mrs. Otis Myers, Ulrike Ferstl of Germany who spent her time with Mr. and Mrs. Edward Niecko, and Dorothea Gunther, also of Deutschland, who lived with Mr. and Mrs. Richard Young.

Last summer nearly fifteen Juniors and Seniors traveled the Atlantic and spent almost two months in European lands, learning of foreign nations, customs, and cultures.

Student Body Needs

"White Ecstasy," a phonograph hook-up for the gymnasium, Homecoming, and a new Christmas tree were a few of the projects filling the agenda of the Junior and Senior High School Student Councils this past year.

The Senior Council, headed by Howard Smith, kicked the year off with planning the October 13 Homecoming and amending parts of the constitution referring to election methods. Under the leadership of Jean Bormann, the Junior branch also amended its constitution and stressed the importance of the council through the homeroom representatives.

In November the councils co-operated in planning Open House. To celebrate Christmas the Junior representatives purchased an aluminum tree for the first floor, while the Senior body occupied itself with the Christmas formal, "White Ecstasy."

Sparking the new year was the Junior High Tardiness Contest. Later the Junior Council sponsored a dance to help finance the proposed phonograph hook-up for the gymnasium. In April the Senior half presented a Exchange Student Assembly. Plans were laid for the Talent Assembly.

Capping the year's activities was the Junior High Achievement Day Program, planned by the junior senate group. This year an Alma Mater was adopted for the school in action carried out by the senior high group, which has promoted the general welfare of the student body in such facets as keener school spirit, better student-teacher relations, and fair discipline practices.

Largest Publication Staffs Ever

Fifty students combined their efforts this year in producing the 1961-1962 Breeze publications.

Under the editorship of James Dean, the Breeze Annual grew by sixteen pages, experimented with color, attempted informal group pictures, and tried to change its name.

The annual staff, made up of Juniors and Seniors who had taken the Journalism course, was advised by Mr. James Harrison. The staff consisted of: Advertising Managers Arlene Crites and Robert Fennimore, Photo Editor Carolyn Wildt, Business Manager Martha Konkle, Assistant Business Manager Lurener Gamble, Art Editor Janet Siler, Typist Linda Heisler, and General Staff members Allen Oldfield, Dianne Yokom, and Leona Tuttle.

The Breeze Newspaper, edited by Pattee Averill and advised by Mr. James Harrison, forged ahead to new frontiers with ten issues to take firm stands on controversial topics and to analyze student and community problems. (See Masthead for names of staff members.)

To better prepare the staffs for their year's work, eight staff members attended MSU's Journalism Day in the fall. In addition, Pattee Averill, Martha Konkle, Janet Seiler, and Carolyn Wildt attended the Summer Communication Arts Institute at the university.

The Senior High Ushers Club, captained by Catherine Cascarelli, ushered for the school plays, concerts, musical productions, and Convocations. The six Juniors and six Seniors, advised by Mrs. Ethel Fleenor, were selected by the graduating seniors from the previous years, as has been the case in past.

Two years ago, a sister organization, the Junior High Ushers Club, was formed. The aim of the twelve members and two alternates has been service. The group ushered at Convocations and at the Junior High Achievement Day Program. Mrs. Fleenor also advised this group, which has been headed by Captain Betsy Baldwin.

"The Dragon That Giggled," a one-act children's play, was one of the main projects of the Thespian Club this year. The group laid plans to stage the production for local grade school pupils under the direction of Pattee Averill.

Thespians also helped Director Becky Basha produce the Breeze-Thespian play, "Tiger House." The club's fifty members travelled to the MSU campus to see a stage production of "Brigadoon."

Advised by Mr. Edward Wilson, the officers for the Thespian Troupe 53 have been: President Julie Capps, Vice-President Diane Stone, Secretary Pattee Averill, and Treasurer Mary Bryce. Made Honorary Members this year were Eva Svenmar, Mr. Philip Green, and Mr. Michael Beery.

Thespians, Ushers Have Busy Year

A hayride, the Senior-Faculty Basketball Game, and a pep assembly high-lighted the year for the Varsity Club, advised to Mr. Ellsworth Anderson and Mr. Don Ashdown.

The club, some thirty members strong, was under the gavel of President Paul Gilbert and was directed by Vice-President Ted Henderson, Secretary Carl Adams, Treasurer Fred Reynolds, and Sergeant-at-Arms David Richards.

During the football season, it was Paul Gilbert who edited the programs for the home grid-iron games. A unique pep assembly, based on the Martin-McCoy feud, was presented by the group.

Sportsmanship Promoted Through G.A.A., Varsity Club

Under Co-Presidents Cheryl Cheek and Edwina Niecko, the Girls Athletic Association has tried to promote sportsmanship and interest in athletic activities among high school girls.

The G.A.A., organized in 1929, held a tobogganing party shortly after first semester reviews and also put on a pep assembly. During the initiation ceremonies, members who had earned 600 points in athletic activities were given small letters, those with 900 points were given large letters, and pins were awarded to those with 1,200 points.

Once a month the 60-member group held a business meeting under the direction of the Co-Presidents, the Secretary Rena Gamble, the Treasurer Carmelia Holt, the Point Keeper Nancy Noonan and the Assistant Point Keeper Mary Gamble.

Under the direction of the advisor, Miss Marge Platner, the group has sponsored a weekly Gym Night, which featured basketball, badminton, archery, ping pong, swimming, soft ball, golf and tennis.

Some G.A.A. members participated in State Play Day activities.

Students Learn Value Of Sharing

Lee Ok Soon.

Min Kyung' Hi, a small, ten-year-old girl with slanted eyes typical of her race and short, black hair, was adopted two years ago by the Orphan Club. This year, after Min went to live with her relatives, the group undertook the support of seven-year-old Lee Ok Soon, an orphaned South Korean girl.

To finance the girls' support, the club, co-operating with the Albion Recreation Department, sponsored the "Refugee Rag" dance. Admission to the event was clothing or toys suitable for a child thirteen or younger.

The spark that lit the origin of the club was a film, which was shown to the World History classes in October of 1960, showing Danish children saving their pennies to buy stamps to build a school for disaster-struck Greek children. One of Miss Agnes Haynes' classes sought to help less-fortunate people and struck on the idea of supporting an orphan.

This fall, when the class was dispersed, twenty-four students agreed to maintain support through the Orphan Club. The officers have been: President, Nancy Rumsey; Vice-President, Lydia Brankovich; Recording Secretary, Barbara Burkwalt; Corresponding Secretary, Linda Harris; and Treasurer, Nancy Noonan.

"The Wonderful World of Books"

SLAW and SLAAM were two goals of the Washington Gardner High School Library Club. The Student Librarian Assistants Workshop at Western Michigan University and the Student Librarians Assistants Association of Michigan at the University of Michigan both had Albion representatives in attendance.

To earn money to send students to the conferences, the sixteen librarians sold high school class pins. The activity was led by President Don Mosher, Vice-President Kathleen Callahan, Secretary Brenda Crumbsy, Treasurer Kathleen Moorehead, Sergeant-at-Arms Karen Kreger, Historian Anna Harper, and Point Keeper Linda Sipe.

Club members competed for three pins, given in honor for extra work done for the library, which were presented at the Awards Assembly. The pins were awarded on a point basis, with points being given for such activities as making bulletin board displays, giving book reports, and locating lost catalogue cards.

The club, organized in 1954 with sixteen members, aimed to promote efficient service, to encourage use of the library, and to carry on the task of maintaining the library.

"You've Gotta Have Heart!" pleaded the Albion chapter of the Future Nurses Club of America in referring to their Valentine Day project—filling a chest with gift articles for children at the Coldwater State Home and Training School. The "heart" project was undertaken after the group toured the home.

The Volunteens, a Red Cross-sponsored program, was the main continuing project for the FNCA.

The girls took a four-week class in Battle Creek before qualifying to help officials at Sheldon Memorial Hospital. Student chairman of the Volunteens was Becky Basha, a senior.

Under the leadership of President Joan Court, Vice-President Shirley Hoaglin, Secretary Becky Basha, Treasurer Billie Jean Warson, and Advisor Miss Carmen Wood, the group strove to live up to its motto: "Better Understanding of Nursing."

The girls held a cocoa sale in the winter to raise money for their treasury.

"For only the second time in the history of the school, there has been a tie for top scholastic honors," came the announcement from Principal Harry Williams. "Co-Valedictorians are Mary Bryce and Julie Taffs, while Judy Beers is Salutatorian."

The announcement high-lighted the National Honor Society's formal initiation ceremonies held in March with Dr. Wayne Fleenor of Albion College as guest speaker.

Members of this national organization were elected into the Society which has as its four cardinal objectives Scholarship, Leadership, Character, and Service.

Taken into the club as juniors were: President Paul Gilbert, Secretary Julie Taffs, Mary Bryce, Pattee Averill, Janice Behling, Diane Stone, Howard Smith, and James Dean.

Initiated in the March ceremony were: Seniors Becky Basha, Judy Beers, Nancy Carnell, Joanne Dice, Sue Ann McAuliffe, David Selent, and Dan Siler; Juniors Susan Bobbitt, Catherine Farley, Sue Isaac, Barry Siler, Terri Van Meter, Morris Wells, Trudy Wolfram, and Marilyn Zeluff.

Four years ago the Lights For Christ Bible Club was founded by a group of students interested in promoting Christ and giving Christian enrichment to others. Headed by Lois Fast, President, the forty-five club members met weekly at noon to spend time in Christian fellowship. The club's main project for the school year was the sponsoring of a religious film in the spring. Late in 1961 the Bible Club came under fire from a group of local citizens who called the club "unconstitutional." School Board members pointed out that the club, not an official school organization, met in a school off-hour and therefore could not be considered as violating any constitution. Other club officers were Vice-President, Joan Court; Secretary, Pat Myers; and Treasurer, David Selent. Herbert Hamlin is group advisor.

$110.00 was given to CARE through the efforts of the Convocation Committee, a student council-appointed body of twelve whose purpose was to plan the Thanksgiving, Christmas and Easter observance programs. The committee, chairmaned by Arlene Crites with Sally Huvendick serving as Secretary-Treasurer, was advised by Mrs. Ethel Fleenor.

Thanksgiving Convocation was held in November and featured Dr. John Cheek speaking on his summer tour of the Holy Lands and Eastern Europe. Special music was provided at the event.

Mary Bryce and Nancy Zick read "Gift of the Magi" to the assembled students at the two Christmas convocation programs, staged in December. The combined choirs, featuring a trio of Craig Klepper, David Selent, and Lillian Harper, took part in both assemblies. Phil MavVean and Nancy Rumsey spoke in the senior high event, James Williamson and Barbara Johnson in the junior high.

"Life's Cycle" was the theme of the April Easter convocation, staged Friday before Spring Vacation. The Convocation Committee also aided the Seniors in planning their May assembly.

The existence of the group was challenged during the fall when unknown parties threatened to serve an injunction against the School Board for allowing religious programs to held in the school. However, "chapels" became "convocations," and no further action was taken.

Amateur Radio (HAM) Station K8UFO is the pride and joy of the Albion High School Radio Club, advised by Mr. Jerry Marz. K8TCT (President, John Kosko), K8TCP (Vice-President, Allen Oldfield), KN8CCD (Secretary, John Harden), and K8VTX (Treasurer, Butch Martin) organized a paper drive and a bake sale to finance the transmitting equipment.

The fifteen club members, including lone girl (YG—or HAM for young girl), Kathy Baker, reconstructed walkie-talkies and travelled to Chicago to experiment with communication between moving vehicles. Eight of the members worked for their licenses to operate the school station, which is in the metal shop.

The group, begun three years ago to promote interest in electronics and amateur radio, was formed when all interested students attended a meeting called by Mr. Marz. During the past year the group's main goal has been to improve the HAM equipment owned by the club.

Students who had trouble with Algebra I or Plane Geometry were individually tutored by members of the Albion Chapter of the Mu Alpha Theta, National Mathematics Honorary for High Schools and Junior Colleges.

At the club's monthly meetings, the fourteen full members and eight associate members heard various speakers, including Mr. Kenneth Smith, Union Steel Products Co. engineer; Mr. Donald Ashdown, high school mathematics instructor; and Dr. Keith W. Moore, Albion College mathematics professor. Major topics of discussion centered about practical applications of mathematics.

At other meetings, Miss Linda Shields, Trudy Wolfram, and Martin Niecko showed tricks utilizing math problems. In December, the club decorated a Christmas tree with geometric ornaments.

Under the guidance of Miss Shields, advisor, the society has aimed to give a keener interest, to develop sound scholarship, and to promote an enjoyment of mathematics among its members.

Officers have been: President, Roger Gilg; Vice-President, Pattee Averill; Secretary-Treasurer, Sue Isaac; Librarian, David Moore; and Publicity Chairman, Jennifer Thurow.

Lectures by a number of local area personalities and field trips to various Albion enterprises headed the long list of activities for the Bi-Phy-Chem Club's thirty-six active members.

The organization was founded in 1948 by Mr. Arthur Ullrey to increase the knowledge of science among students, to perfect scientific skills for them, and to serve the community through applications of science.

Membership is open to students in the senior high school who are enrolled in one of the four science courses. Advised by Mr. Ullrey and Mr. Vernon Baldwin have been officers President Becky Basha, Vice-President Julie Taffs, Secretary Ann Chauncey, Treasurer Morris Wells, and Sergeant-at-Arms John Slick.

The Bi-Phy-Chem Club has served somewhat as a big brother to the Junior High Science Club. The latter organization, a recent addition to the school's list of clubs, has been under the co-advisorship of Miss Linda Shields and Mr. Edward Wilson.

The junior high club, made up largely of students in the classes of Miss Shields and Mr. Wilson, boasted a membership of some eighty members.

Club excursions to area museums and industrial plants high-lighted the year for the group.

"Parlez-Vous Francais?"

The blue and gold Fleur-de-Lis, emblem of France, symbolizes the interest in the French language put forth by Le Cercle Francais. During the year the French Club has heard Albion students who travelled to Europe last summer speak. At Christmas time, members of the group went caroling.

During the first semester, the twenty members, all taking French III, met once a month during a class period. Following the initiation of new members in February, the club resumed its custom of meeting in local homes.

The high-light of the year for the club was the annual banquet dinner.

The meetings were conducted in French by Paul Gilbert, President; the minutes were kept entirely in French by Secretary, Mary Bryce; and the financial reports were given in the foreign language by Treasurer, Martin Niecko. Janice Behling, Vice-President, introduced the programs in the club's tongue. Advisor to the thirty-four-year-old organization has been Mrs. Olga Hicks.

"Hable usted la Espanol? Si," say the members of El Club de Los Buenos Vecinos, better known as the Spanish Club. Under the sponsorship of Mrs. Mildred Ford, the club has aimed to give the members an extra opportunity to speak Spanish and to have fun with the language.

In November the group heard Mrs. Olga Hicks discuss her trip to Mexico. Mrs. Hicks also showed some colorful slides of the scenic land "south of the border." In December the group held a party, a Fiesta de Navidad, complete with a pinata, a large clay jar full of candy which is to be broken by students.

At club meetings, conducted completely in Spanish, the "Spaniards" played such games as Anagrams and Bingo and held a spelldown, all under the direction of the Program Committee, Marilyn Zeluff and Mary Sprandel. Club members also used the school language booths.

The officers (President, Pattee Averill; Vice-President, William Rutz; Secretary, Jennifer Thurow; and Treasurer Roger Gilg) planned the selection and initiation of new members, who were required to have a B in Spanish II or to maintain A work in Spanish I.

Latin is not a dead language as the forty-three members of the school's two Latin Clubs will strongly attest. Advised by Jerome Sacharski, the two organizations staged a pep assembly during the basketball season and also set up several other group projects. Officers of the Second Year Group were: Præsident, Pat Lewis; Vice-President, Lillian Harper; Secretary-Treasurer, Anna Harper; and Sergeant-at-Arms, James Costello. Becky Nunley headed the First Year Group as President while Peter Pohl was Vice-President. P.S.—The "Romans" maintain that "Experientia docet."

President Fred Gillette has spearheaded the Audio Visual Aids work: The operation of the school's motion picture equipment. The twenty-three members, advised by Mr. A. J. Ullrey, voluntarily gave up their study hall periods to show movies in the auditorium and in classrooms.

With the aim of maintaining school equipment, the A.V.A. was organized in 1956 by teacher request. Club members elected Carl Adams Vice-President, Peter Pohl Secretary, and Mark Whitney Treasurer at a fall meeting.

"Seventy-six trombones caught the morning sun . . . . . with a hundred and ten cornets right behind . . . ."—Meredith Wilson.

And 64 bandsmen, clad in striking maroon and white, marched onto the football field, led by Drum Major Dan Siler and Majorettes Pattee Averill and Sue Ann McAuliffe, to present the half-time show. The field lights darkened, and the group marched with pinlights to intricate drill patterns.

At a later game the Junior High Marching Band, 58 strong and led by Drum Major David Kubicek and Majorettes Sharon McAuliffe, Leilani Szot and Shirley Vitale, joined their elders in a special half-time presentation which included the massed formation "AHS" (see picture over) and the playing of "On The Mall," the school song.

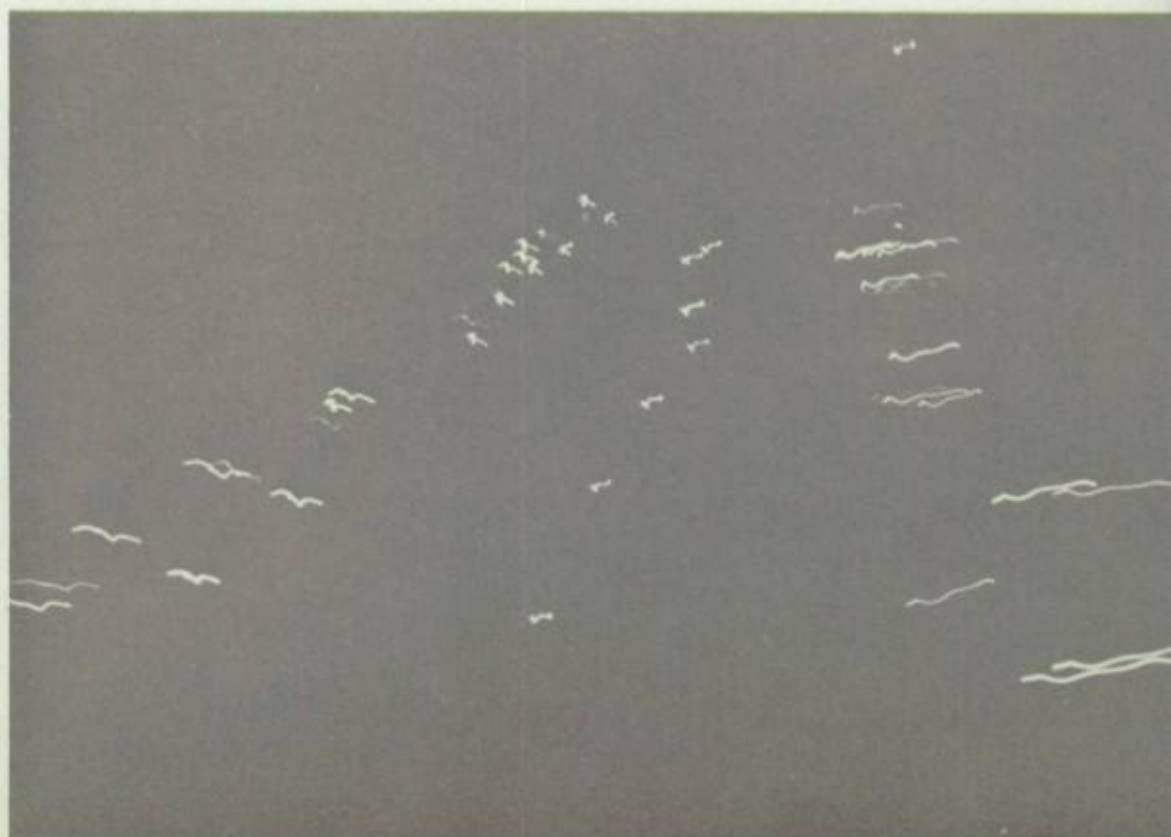

During the football season, the Senior High Marching Band attended the Michigan State University Band Day and entertained the grid fans with a two-minute pre-game program entitled "Parade Of Bands." Later, local members joined with other high school bands to play at half-time. The versatile group also travelled to Marshall to cheer the champion football team to victory and to wade through ankle-deep mud in a half-time performance.

Following the close of the marching season, the Senior High Concert Band, under the direction of Karl L. Abel, began to work towards the December 16 Winter Concert, which featured Larry McCoy playing "The Theme From The Apartment" on the piano. The band also put on a Spring Concert, which, too, featured musical solos, and later marched in the Memorial Day Parade. The Junior High Concert Band, directed by Robert Baribeau, presented a concert in the spring and played for Junior High Achievement Day activities.

Both instrumental groups participated in the District Band and Orchestra Festival held February 24 near Kalamazoo, and 49 soloists and 33 groups competed in the District Solo and Ensemble Festival on February 3. In March Albion hosted the District All-Stars band with Leonard B. Smith as the guest conductor.
